

File Created by Blogging Rebirth WP Plugin

Throwing a pot using a Roulette Gear technique for surface texture

Visit lakesidepottery.com for more potter's wheel texture techniques, altered forms and other pottery tips See how to create pottery surface texture using a gear / roulette technique. Provided by Lakeside Pottery, Ceramic School and Studio. Lakeside Pottery is a ceramic art and craft educational resource for the community focusing on clay art. We seek to inspire creativity, foster self-discovery, and nurture an appreciation to learn about art through our pottery programs, special events and access to our studio, clay center and gallery. IN OUR FACILITY .... Learn the art of pottery through our ceramic art classes, using the potters wheel and ceramic sculpting, in a professional, spacious and well lit studio centrally located in Stamford, CT. Instruction activities for children, adults and seniors include group classes (beginners and advanced), private lessons, after school art for kids programs and summer camp. Open Studio time can be purchased for independent work. Teachers professional development, corporate team building workshops, custom programs, birthday party events for children or adults and gift certificates are also offered. Our gallery include diverse handmade pottery work made by our instructors. We service Southern CT, Fairfield County, Westchester, White Plains and Rockland County, NY. Towns: Cos Cob, Darien, Fairfield, Greenwich, New Canaan, Old Greenwich, Ridgefield, Rowayton, Southport, Stamford, Weston, Westport, Wilton, Norwalk, Pound Ridge, Bedford ...

You can also find this article published on Throwing a pot using a Roulette Gear technique for surface texture, and on the tag pages Gear, Roulette, surface, technique, texture, Throwing, Using.