Newcastle Under Lyme School LVI @ Ambleside - October 2004

The class of 2006 on an alleged team building exercise to Ambleside, a thoroughly pleasant part of the Lake District for a couple of days. Relive the event through the sceptical eye of photographer Will Garner and his friends, witnessing stunning views, ridiculous antics and insane wildlife along the way. Naturally, this video similarly features Iron Maiden, as all my earlier work did, but all the same, fans of Matt Burke will not be disappointed.
