Be a workplace hero ... ReTweet this post on twitter

When it comes to our 2010 conference we just held with our Top Small Company Workplaces award media partner, Inc. Magazine, the incredible takeaways presented on employee engagement and investing in your workplace for best bottom line results were apparent in my previous posts on Twitter insights shared from it, and speaker Donna Fenn's reporting from it in two business resources.

Today I'd like to add more from this event to the mix – some of the great photos taken by David Topping. Enjoy:
