Over the next few weeks I'll be making a series of videos featuring home-grown people practices of some of the organizations that have applied for Winning Workplaces and Inc. Magazine's 2011 Top Small Company Workplaces award. Our intention with these videos is to share the unique employee engagement strategies these innovative firms have come up with to create a more harmonious and productive workplace culture, as a means to boost job satisfaction and retention, and ultimately customer satisfaction and profits.

In addition to our blog, you can always find the latest videos in this series on our Facebook and YouTube channels.

Challenge: If you watch these videos and think, My company does something more special than that, and we get a bigger ROI from it, then you really need to apply for our 2011 workplace award, which carries a prize of being featured in Inc. next June. Hurry – the deadline to apply is January 14, 2011.
